

National Newspaper Week, Oct. 1-8

OUR DEMOCRACY

by Mat

A MILLION EDITIONS AGO

ONE FATEFUL NIGHT IN 1639, AN ANONYMOUS BOSTON PRINTER, SETTING GREAT WOOD BLOCKS OF TYPE, POUNDING THEM TOGETHER, LIFTING STIFF SHEETS OF HEAVY RAG PARCHMENT, GAVE AMERICA ITS FIRST LOCAL NEWSPAPER, A MILLION EDITIONS AGO.

OUT OF THOSE DIM ORIGINS CAME A DURABLE BULWARK OF DEMOCRACY—A FREE PRESS. OUR NEWSPAPERS TODAY, ALERT DEFENDERS OF OUR FREEDOMS, ARE TIRELESS ADVOCATES OF GOOD CITIZENSHIP, AND OPEN THE WINDOW ON THE REST OF THE WORLD FOR ALL OF US.

National Newspaper Week, the purpose of which is to impress upon the people the importance of a free press, comes to a close this week. Freedom of the press is to be guarded as a vital right of mankind. It is the unquestionable right by law, including the wisdom of any restrictive statute. To its privileges under the freedom of American institutions are inseparably joined the responsibilities for an intelligent fidelity to the Constitution of the United States.

To remain free we must be informed. To be informed we must have unshackled sources of information, of which the free press is the outstanding agent. Remember, individual freedom would perish if freedom of the press should die. The chief difference between Russia and America is the blackout of the press in one country and its freedom in the other.

The following letter by President Eisenhower, which is dated October 1, 1953, sums up the importance of a free press: "To the Newspapers of the Nation:

"National Newspaper Week prompts us all to renew our awareness of the remarkable national service rendered daily by the newspapers of America.

"Our free press does more than tell our people the history of our times. It explains that history, interprets it, and, so doing, often actually helps to create that history.

"A free press and a free society are essentially one. As the press can know freedom only in a democratic state, so democracy itself is fortified by a free press.

"This strengthening of our society is, of course, the antithesis of the ignoble service performed by the press of totalitarian countries. The effectiveness of a free press is virtually to be measured by the integrity, candor and responsibilities of its criticism.

"On this occasion I am happy to send warm greetings to the reporters, editors and publishers of our Nation's newspapers—those that they are custodians of a majestic trust, a solemn responsibility to help arm our people with the knowledge and understanding without which free choice, free government, free men could not be.

"The name of Peter Zenger is intimately linked with freedom of the press. He was a courageous printer for a free press even before the United States won its independence from Britain.

"An immigrant from Germany, he challenged the might of the tyrannical British governor in the year 1735 and paved the way for the free press through the years, we still enjoy today.

"Zenger arrived in America in 1710, and circumstances forced him to become self-supporting at once. He became the apprentice of a printer, William Bradford, and after eight years knew enough about the business to start in on his own.

"At the time Zenger was a newspaper publisher in New York William Cosby, the king's representative, was enjoying a reign of despotism. He tramped over the people as though they were so much dirt under his feet, and claimed the privilege of removing judges who failed to agree with him.

Zenger had the courage to oppose Cosby and his press gave him a weapon that proved formidable. The time came, however, when Zenger had to choose between personal safety or a continued enunciation of his principles. His course was clear to him. He chose to continue his fight, and the New York Weekly Journal was the means by which he carried it on.

Strong political pressure was brought to bear upon him. Four numbers of the newspaper were publicly burned in the presence of the town recorder and a few army officers. Shortly thereafter he was arrested, charged with false and seditious writing. He was confined to the city hall and the trial set for August 4, 1735.

When everything looked blackest for Zenger, Andrew Hamilton, a distinguished leader of the bar in Philadelphia, informed the court that he desired to plead for the accused editor.

Hamilton rested Zenger's case upon a new philosophy of government, bypassing technicalities and getting down to fundamentals. Every word broke a chain and helped to establish, for decades to come, a new freedom of the press, which up to this time has overcome every threat, at least in this country.

The judge was strictly partisan, and instructed the jury to reach its decision on the basis of whether or not the material had been published. But the jury, because of Hamilton's impassioned appeal, rose above the narrow concepts of British law and found Peter Zenger "not guilty."

A Peter Zenger memorial was dedicated in the old sub-treasury building in New York last May in which leading publishers participated. Also participating in the ceremony were seventh and eighth generation descendants of Zenger, as well as descendants of Andrew Hamilton.

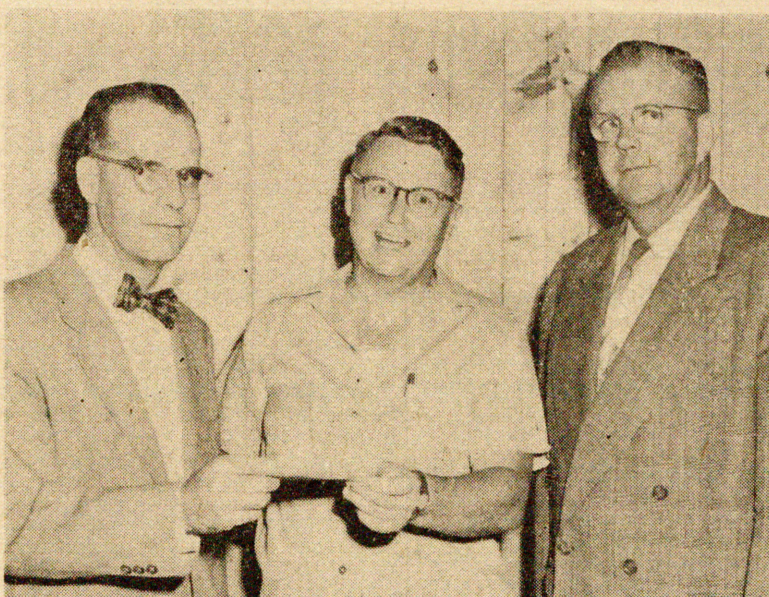

The continued existence of our democratic society goes hand in hand with a full and free flow of information. And the press of America, in its colonial infancy, earned the right and accepted the obligation of keeping the public informed. We of today must accept that obligation and continue the work.

Lois Mancke and William Steen Speak Vows at Service in Mokena Church

Wedding promises were exchanged by Miss Lois Mancke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mancke, Mokena, and Mr. William Steen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Steen, also of Mokena, at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 4, in the St. John's Evangelical and Reformed church, Mokena.

The Rev. William J. Riemann officiated at the ceremony. Mr. Oliver Kessler, accompanied by Mrs. Lydia Ryan at the organ, sang "Because," "Until" and "The Lord's Prayer." Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Ryan played nuptial music consisting of "Liebestraum," Liszt; "By the Waters of Minnetonka" by Leuence; "Perfect Day," Carrie Jacobs Bond; "Clair de Lune," Debussy; "Cantilene Nuptial," Dubois and "Love Song" E. Nevin.

The altar was decorated with palms and baskets of white gladioli and pompons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of traditional bridal satin in ivory, fashioned with a smooth molded bodice, long pointed sleeves and a shallow scooped neckline with heavily embroidered blossoms and leaves in iridescent sequins and pearls. The vast gathered skirt drifted over several petticoats into a long full train. Her double tiered veil of imported French silk illusion fell from a tiny satin hat helmet touched with pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli and pompons.

Mrs. Warren Mancke, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Clarabelle Sippel, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore identical floor length gowns of old rose iridescent taffeta designed with a scooped neckline and bertha-like collar tied in the back. The back of the flared skirt was accented with an inverted pleat.

Their headpieces were of bronze pompons matching their colonial cascade bouquets.

Charles Holm, friend of the groom, was best man and Andrew Bueschel III was groomsmen. Ushers were Warren Mancke and Leigh Kropp.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors for about 300 relatives and friends. Mrs. Marvin Weitendorf and Mrs. Kenneth Fulton cut the wedding cake, Mrs. Melvin Kropp presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Leigh Kropp at the punch bowl. Miss Marilyn Cooper had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Mancke, mother of the bride, was attired in a dress of beige silk crepe and brown accessories, and Mrs. Steen, mother of the groom, wore navy blue taffeta with light blue accessories. Their corsages were of bronze pompons.

For a wedding journey to the East, the new Mrs. Steen selected a black faille suit dress with black accessories. Upon their return they will reside in Frankfort.

A graduate of Joliet Township high school, the bride is employed by the Rock Island railroad in Chicago. The groom was graduated from Joliet Township High School and Joliet Junior college, served three years in the United States Coast Guard and is now employed by Caterpillar Tractor company in Joliet. Prenuptial parties feted Mrs. Steen were given by Mrs. David McMillan and Mrs. Harold Cooper; Miss Clarabelle Sippel and Mrs. Warren Mancke; Mrs. Marvin Weitendorf, Mrs. Kenneth Fulton and Mrs. Joseph Gougar and by the teachers of St. John's Sunday school. Following the wedding rehearsal Saturday evening, October 3, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kropp and Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Kropp entertained in the former's home for the couple.

Famous Organist To Give Recital At Homer Church

Saturday evening, Oct. 10 there will be a demonstration of the Baldwin organ at the Homer church at which time the community will have the rare opportunity of hearing a famous English musician. Reginald Foort, playing the instrument.

At the age of 17, Mr. Foort was graduated from the Royal College of Organists, and the same year was appointed organist and choir director of a well known London church. He has held many important musical positions all the years since. He is a brilliant pianist and composer as well as organist.

During frequent visits to the USA he became attached to this country and when an opportunity came two years ago for him to make this his permanent home, he gladly accepted and brought with him his wife and teen age daughter and son.

It is hoped that many people will avail themselves of the chance to hear this artist.

Don't Forget The Date—Sat., Oct. 10, Our 'Open House'

In last week's issue we announced our "open house" celebration which will be held Saturday, October 10, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., but we will repeat the schedule here for the convenience of visitors.

This "open house" will be held in the newspaper plant on Front st., Mokena, where the News-Bulletin, Tinley Park Times and Orland Park Herald are published every Thursday. You, your family and friends are cordially invited, and we will be hoping to see you.

The purpose of this "open house" is to enable the people of this area to see our new Duplex press in operation. Since the installation of this press last spring many people have desired to see it in operation, and this is their opportunity to gratify that wish. The Duplex prints from a large roll of news print and folds as it prints.

Visitors to our open house celebration will also have an opportunity to see our new Little Giant press in operation. This press, which is automatic, prints circulars, handbills, announcements and posters at the rate of 2500 to 5000 per hour. Also of interest to our visitors, will be the new addition to our plant which was constructed on the north end of the old building last spring.

Following is the schedule of operation for the Duplex press: We will print four pages for the following week's edition in the morning at 9:30, 10:30 and 11:30. In the afternoon at 1:30, and every hour thereafter, including 4:30. Then we will be back in the evening at 7 starting the press at 7:30 and again at 8:30, giving everyone a choice of hours in which to watch this famous English musician. Reginald Foort, playing the instrument.

As a part of the building which houses the Semmler news paper plant was built by Great Grandfather Heim 104 years ago it is hoped to inject into this event a bit of the atmosphere of those long gone days when our pioneer forefathers, with courage which rose high above hardships and vision which looked far beyond the present moment, started the framework of the Mokena of today, a year or two before the Rock Island tracks were laid. To help carry our visitors back over the years and to link the present with the past, you will be greeted by a lady costumed in the quaint habiliments of a bygone era.

It is hoped that this "open house" will ring an old time note which will strike a responsive chord in many of our visitors, and give thoughtful pause to many of the younger generation.

Each visitor will receive a miniature "open house" edition" telling in full the story of these newspapers since the time when William Semmler started them. Light refreshments will be served, and there will be a very novel and useful gift for every one who calls.

We hope to see you at our open house next Saturday. Plan now to come.

She was a devoted wife and mother and filled her life with caring for her family and her home.

Mrs. Carter was born in Chicago, August 25, 1895. On Sept. 21, 1926 she was united in marriage with Mr. Whitney Carter. Mr. Carter became agent and telegrapher for the Rock Island railroad at Mokena in 1926, but it was not until September 1934 that he and his family moved to the village where they have lived since.

The company giving these operettas is called The American Savoyards, Inc., which was formed by a group of young people from the East, which includes the Misses Knapp.

The organization was formed two years ago, and since then has been highly successful. The operettas have been given many fine reviews by music and theater circles in the New York and Chicago papers.

The Misses Knapp spent the last year in England, and this summer at various summer theaters in Maine.

Paul Buck, 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orlie Buck, of Hermine ave., Tinley Park, is a polio patient in Cook county hospital in Chicago. He is suffering from the bulbar type, and has been in an iron lung since last Wednesday. He was removed from it for a few hours on Sunday, but remains in a critical condition.

At the regular meeting of the Mokena Village board Tuesday evening, Oct. 6, Norval Robinson asked permission to have a trailer at their place. In considering this request, President Scarth said that to grant it would be a violation of both the zoning and housing ordinances, and the request was, therefore, refused.

W. A. Muehler asked that he be permitted to hook a large enough pipe on the water main to service five homes, on condition that he give the village an easement so they would be allowed to go on his property to read water meters or shut off buffalo boxes. After a lengthy discussion, he was told that he could connect only a regulation size water pipe (3-4 inch) to the water main. Councilman Russell Anderson suggested that hereafter he submit his plans to the board on paper, thus saving much time and discussion.

Several complaints have been received because of bicycles and tricycles left all over the roadway on Parker street. Furthermore, a dog has been attacking children who are riding bikes along that street.

St. John's church asked permission to put signs on Front street and out on Wolf road opposite Second street. Charles Burkhardt, Sr. was asked to look into it. Mr. Burkhardt reported that repairs have been made on several streets.

A resolution was adopted to write Police Chief Carter a letter of condolence because of the death of his wife, and send flowers.

The board agreed to let a contract to the Suburban Steeplejack contractors, who will clean and paint the inside of the village tank, paint the outside and repair the top of the tank, as well as the bottom, making all needed repairs. The board is considering a 10-year maintenance contract with the same company.

The owners of 130 and 132 Front street were notified by registered mail, with return receipt demanded, that the buildings must be removed. They have been condemned as fire hazards and are considered a menace because of the danger of collapsing. The board is empowered by law to fine the owners if they fail to remove them in a specified time, and to have them removed by order of the board.

LOTTIE O'NEILL DISAGREES WITH MRS. FDR

State Senator Lottie Holman O'Neill, veteran Illinois Republican legislator, was one of the principal speakers at the Wheaton courthouse Monday evening, where she answered charges made by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt at a series of Chicago meetings. Mrs. Roosevelt has charged that an organized and "well financed drive is underway to destroy the UN", and is making a nationwide tour urging increased activity of UN sympathizers as an answer to the opposition being encountered by the international organization, from Fascist, big business and isolationist groups.

Of the Bricker amendment Mrs. Roosevelt had said: "President Eisenhower does not want the Bricker amendment. It would tie his hands in international matters needing immediate decision. He would have to submit such matters to Congress where time would be of the essence."

In support of the Bricker amendment Senator O'Neill said: "We've got to alert the people to the danger of discarding the Bricker amendment, which limits presidential treaty powers. It's been shelved in Washington. It's up to us to get it off the shelf. We've got to safeguard the Constitution to save the nation."

S Senator O'Neill canceled an out-of-town engagement when called upon to answer Mrs. Roosevelt's attack on the Bricker amendment and said: "We'll make quick work of such propaganda. This is a solid mid-Western state, sold on solid Americanism. We're going to make our voice heard in this controversy."

At the meeting in Wheaton, Henry McFarland, executive secretary of the American Flag committee, Philadelphia, talked on "United Nations—Haven of Traitors."

Christian Science Churches
Harmonious living depends upon our acceptance and demonstration of Truth and Love which destroy the inharmonies of sin and sickness, until the full scale of man's spiritual perfection is reached. This will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 4. The subject of the Lesson Sermon will be Unreality.

The Golden Text is from Timothy (6:17) "Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be high minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy."

Lesson Sermon passages from the Bible (King James Version) include:

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world, for any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world." (1 John 2:15, 16)

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"The demands of God appeal to thought only; but the claims of mortality, and what are termed laws of nature, appertain to matter. Which, then, are we to accept as legitimate and capable of producing the highest human good? Either Spirit or matter is your model. If you try to have two models, then you practically have none. Like a pendulum in a clock, you will be thrown back and forth, striking the ribs of matter and swinging between the real and the unreal" (pp. 182, 360).

Donates $1000 to Will Co. Chapter Of Cancer Society
A check for $1,000 was presented Sept. 23 to J. C. MacKeever, former chairman of the executive committee of the Will County chapter of the American Cancer Society, Inc., by The Chicago Sun-Times.

Given to further the cancer group's work, the grant is the result of a subscription campaign which the Sun-Times is conducting in the Chicago area. Part of the money realized from the sale of each subscription

Rock Island Installs $1,000,000 New Shop Facilities

The Rock Island Lines announced October 1 the opening of its newest and most modern diesel shop facilities, located at 47th and Wentworth Ave., in Chicago.

The $1,000,000 installation is for maintenance and repair of diesel power operating in and out of the Chicago area. It takes the place of a roundhouse which was built before the turn of a century. The roundhouse will be dismantled.

The shop will accommodate 16 diesel units on its eight tracks. The tracks, elevated from the main floor, are over pits. The equipment also includes a hydraulically operated table to remove or install engine trucks. Platforms at engine floor level make for easy access to upper sections of engines.

Office space for the assistant master mechanic, road foreman of equipment, supervisors, office employees and the Stores department is provided.

The employees' wash, lunch, locker and shower rooms are done in eye-appealing buff-colored tile. The shop's interior decoration is in pastel shades of gray and green, an innovation in color approach for such an installation. Danger points, such as around cranes and electrical panels, are painted in sharp colors.

WILL CO. HOME
BUREAU HOLDS
ANNUAL MEET

The Will County Home Bureau held its 15th annual meeting in St. Jude's church, New Lenox, Wednesday, Sept. 30.
The all day meeting began at 10 a. m. and was attended by some 200 women who were welcomed by one of the past presidents, Miss Caroline Bentley of New Lenox.

Miss Marguerite Offermann and Mrs. Ray Eib were in charge of the program with Mrs.
E. Rydberg, Mrs. Walter H.
White and Mrs. M. Greenley on the reception committee, and Mrs. Davis Gougar and Mrs.
Glenn Batson in charge of registration. Beautiful bouquets of fall flowers were furnished by the Joliet unit.

A delicious luncheon was served at noon by the women of church, during which time, Mrs.
H. F. Griffin, New Lenox, played organ selections. In the afternoon, the Wheatland Hum-makers entertained the group.

Mrs. Harlow Nicholson gave her report as 4H chairman, stating that the new 4H clubs organized during the past year were: Richland Merry Makers, Manhattan Chat 'n' Chu, Elwood
Nimble Fingers, Lockport Little Women, Troy Jolly Girls, and Wilmingtton Little Women.
There were 557 girls and 5

boys enrolled in 4H work this year.

Mrs. Eleanor Johnson, Assistant Home Advisor, spoke further on the 4H program and announced that Achievement Nite would be November 5, time and place to be announced later.
She also reported as County Radio Chairman and thanked all those who had cooperated with her in presenting some fine programs on the second and fourth Thursday of every month at 11:30 a. m. over WJOL.

Miss Kay Anderson, Home Adviser, presented the goals for the coming year and how they would be accomplished. She announced that Officer's Training School would be held Nov. 3 at 1:15 p. m. in the Joliet Library with Miss Gertrude Kaiser from the University of Illinois in charge. Also, that National Nutrition Week is from November 15 to 22 and speakers about nutrition are available by contacting Mrs. Jean Fisher of the Dairy Council.

Miss Anderson then introduced Miss Mary Jo Kinnen, an International Farm Youth Ex-changee from Luxembourg, an independent country in northwestern Europe of less than a thousand square miles, where the average farm is about 30 acres. She interestingly spoke of the many contrasts between our country and hers.

Mrs. Alfred Krapf reported as chairman of the nominating committee and submitted the names of officers for the coming year. The group was asked to accept the nominating chair-man's report and the following members were elected for the year 1953-54: Mrs. Geo. Bovee of Manhattan, chairman; Mrs.
Robert Fitzer of Troy, vice-chairman; Mrs. Douglas Edmond son of Wheatland, secretary; Miss Hazel Cowell of Wilton as treasurer; Mrs. John Gorman of Will as Financial Secretary, Mrs.
Ray Cann of Will as Recreation chairman, Miss Marguerite Offermann of Jackson as Program chairman; Mrs. Harlow Nicholson of Jackson as 4H Chairman, Mrs. Robert Irwin of Troy as Publicity chairman.

Mrs. Elmer Ekdahl, Northeast Illinois Home Bureau Federation Director installed the new officers before the close of the meeting in the afternoon.

Following the luncheon, Mr.
Wayne Churchill, Farm Adviser
addressed the group as a representative of the Will County Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Eugene Kazmark of Joliet was the featured speaker of the afternoon her subject being "Character Analysis," a hobby that she says "keeps her mentally alive." She described the face as a "mirror of your thoughts," using charts and sketches to illustrate the most recognizable types that determine whether you are an ideal-ist, doing well in mental pursuits, the independent type, tending toward an outdoor vocation, or the vital type that is so often found in the entertainment world. She interestingly amazed the group by analyzing the true character of several persons in the audience.

Mrs. Ekdahl and Mrs. Harold Bowers of Kendall County related some of their experiences and spoke of the meetings they attended at the conference of the Associated Country Women of the World which was held in Toronto, Canada for two weeks this past summer. The were especially impressed at how much slower the people were in accomplishing their work.

The next regular meeting of the Executive Board of the Will County Home Bureau will be held Monday, October 12 at 9:30
a. m. in the Farm Bureau building.—Mrs. Robert Irwin, Pub.

AAA Clocks Dodge At 108.36 MPH In Bonneville Flats Test

Traveling at 108.36 miles per hour over the straightaway track in Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, in tests held under supervision of the American Automobile Association Contest Board, a 1954 Dodge V-8 October 3 became the fastest standard American car ever clocked by AAA officials.

Along with other speed marks W. C. Newberg, Dodge president, announced in Detroit that the 1954 Dodge V-8 has chalked up a total of 196 new AAA stock car records, more than any American stock car ever held before.

Challenging AAA competition for automobiles with 183 to 305 cubic inch engine displacement (which takes in a majority of U. S. made cars), a Dodge four-door and convertible, said Newberg, "proved themselves unquestioned performance champions."

Records falling to the two Dodge V-8s ran from one kilometer to over 7,000 miles. Both cars were run on regular grade gasoline and original equipment tires.

The 1954 Dodge V-8 convertible, equipped with PowerFlite, a new fully automatic transmission, ran full throttle continuously over a 72-hour period. AAA records showed. During this time, the convertible eclipsed more than 60 AAA records formerly held by cars equipped with conventional, manual shifting devices.

The convertible experienced no mechanical difficulties during the whole 72 hour run, according to AAA records, and required no servicing beyond regular pit stops for fuel and change of drivers.

In addition, the 1954 Dodge V-8 four door sedan, on a 48 hour endurance run, achieved lap speeds of better than 107 miles per hour, and for the entire run averaged better than 101 miles per hour including pit stops.

Tests for the 1954 Dodge V-8 were conducted in both the AAA's open and closed car competition, and were run on a 14-mile straightaway and a 10-mile circular track—night and day under extreme conditions.

"These tests," said Newberg, "were the most strenuous of this type ever given a new model before its introduction to the public."

In tests for both speed and acceleration on the straightaway, the two 1954 Dodge V-8s swept up every single record in their class and even established new marks in other competitive classes as well.

The two 1954 Dodge cars participating in the tests were selected off the final assembly line at Dodge's Detroit plant last month by AAA Contest Board officials, and remained under constant AAA supervision until the tests on the Bonneville Salt Flats were completed.

The entire project was under the supervision of A. C. Pillsbury, Pacific Coast regional director for the AAA. Representing Dodge was Wally Zierer, engineer in charge of the project.

"The two automobiles," said Zierer, "demonstrated plus factors of safety and durability during the tests, and records of trouble-free operation under extreme conditions of wind and rain and heat and cold were proved again and again."

Chief driver for the tests was Danny Eames, who was at the wheel of the 1954 Dodge V-8 four-door sedan, equipped with a conventional three speed transmission, as it sped over the straightaway at 108.36 miles per hour.

The 1954 Dodge topped an AAA mark set only a few weeks ago by the famous English Austin-Healey sports car. It was Eames, also, who drove a 1953 Dodge V-8 to victory earlier this year over all eight-cylinder cars in the Mobilgas Economy Run.

AAA officials permitted only one 1954 Dodge V-8 to be run at a time. Both cars were timed by an electric eye which transcribed results to a paper tape, which will soon receive official certification at AAA headquarters in Washington.

Virtual military-type secrecy surrounded the runs, with no one being permitted in the test area not connected with the project. The 1954 Dodge cars are not scheduled to go on public display until Thursday, Oct. 8.

Much of the success of the project was attributed by Newberg "to the splendid cooperation offered by AAA officials, local authorities, General Petroleum Corp., and the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., who participated in the tests."

If you have trouble getting ice trays out of the refrigerator, fold a piece of wax paper under them when placing in the freezing unit. They will then slide right out. Wax paper under cookies on a baking tin will enable you to lift them out easily, without breaking or sticking.

The best way to oil your door lock is to put the oil right on the key and turn it several times in the lock. For a door with squeaking or stubborn hinges, lubricating oil is best applied with a feather.

The first 25 miles away from home are the most hazardous when you're driving an automobile.

Seventy three per cent of the drivers involved in all motor vehicle accidents also lived within 25 miles of where the accident occurred. Seventeen per cent lived elsewhere in the state, and 10 per cent outside the state.

Dedicate Lutheran Home for the Aged Sunday Afternoon

One of the nation's newest and most modern homes for the aged will be dedicated October 11 at Arlington Heights. At that time the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged will officially move into the three new units erected at a cost of $1,100,000. They replace a 61-year old building which is being sold.

Dedication services at 3:30 p.
m. will be open to the public.
Dr. John W. Behnken, president of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, will be the principal speaker. Music on the program will be furnished by a mixed choir led by John G.

Kiek, and a band from the Immanuel Lutheran church of Elm hurst.

The new three-story building, located 5 blocks northwest of the present site, will provide 142 resident rooms. They have planned so that future expansion may be made by extending the central section and wings of the present structure. Each resident will have a private room 9x14 ft., furnished with the most modern fireproof furniture

Judicial Amendment Important Issue In Nov. 3 Election

Red - (db)
The issue in the November 3 Judicial elections is: does the public want judicial reform?
If you are for the judicial amendment, vote for the party which is for it, vote the Republican ticket." Attorney Austin L. Wyman, leader in the citizens' fight against crime, made this statement as he accepted the nomination of the Citizens' Republican Rally for the Judicial Elections.

"The result of the election will be evidence of what the public wants. In this election the voters have the choice between the Republican Party which was for the judicial amendment and the Democrat Party which was against it," he declared and added:

"The Republicans are dedicated to the basic principles stemming from the judicial amendment. Basic and inherent, and most important in the amendment is the retention of qualified judges. It would prevent their being swept out of office in an election landslide or for some other political happening.
Until that amendment is adopted by the Legislature what the Republicans have done is the best and closest substitute for what the judicial article seeks to do.

"The selection of candidates by the Republican Party was made not to give mere lip service to improving the judiciary not for political expediency, but genuinely and wholeheartedly made as part of the Republican sponsorship and support of the judicial amendment. It was made to carry out the intent of its basic principles.

"The Republican slate is one for which any citizen can vote with confidence. It has always been my belief in judicial elections that I should vote for the best candidates, regardless of party affiliation and I have always urged my friends to make their selection that way. The judicial elections of November 3, are an exception. I will vote the straight Republican ballot and will urge my friends to do likewise."

Members of the Citizens committee include Mrs. Charles F.
Cutter, John T. Beatty, William
F. Borland, Otto C. Doering,
Wade Petzer, Jr., A. A. Frank,
Fred M. Gillies, Ralph A. Bard,
James A. Cunningham, Franklin J. Lundberg, George B. Mc-Kibbin, Alfred O'Gara, Gardner
Stern, T. Philip Swift and Merle J. Trees.

Chairman Wyman announced that the group will conduct an extensive campaign to inform the voters of the issues and to insure a huge turnout on Tuesday, November 3.

Christian Science Churches

Is health to be found in matter? Is God the creator of evil?
Is death the stepping stone to life? Answers to these questions are fundamental to man's true being and will be explained in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 11. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be Are Sin, Disease, and Death
Real?

The Golden Text is from Psalms (67:1,2) "God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us;
that they way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations."

Bible selections (King James Version) in the Lesson-Sermon include:

"Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8:31,32).

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"Nothing is more disheartening than to believe that there is a power opposite to God, or good, and that God endows this opposing power with strength to be used against Himself, against Life, health, harmony... Suffering, sinning, dying beliefs are unreal. When divine Science is universally understood, they will have no power over man, for man is immortal and lives by divine authority" (pp. 380,76)

I SAVED
$11686
ON THE CAR
I BOUGHT

"I made over a 50% down payment on a late-model car. I was told it would cost me $257.60 to insure the car and finance the balance of $700.00. Lucky for me I'd talked to a State Farm agent first, because I used the Bank Plan instead and paid an insurance and financing charge of only $140.74. I saved $116.86." (One of many actual cases.)
